Dear Mr. Webster:

The National Association of Secondary School Principals, together with the Shell Oil Company and the Shell Companies Foundation, sponsors each year a three-day leadership conference in Williamsburg for the top 102 high school seniors in the nation. These students are selected from approximately 19,000 high schools coast to coast. In addition to receiving substantial scholarships from the Shell Companies Foundation, the students are challenged to project and discuss the major issues they will face as leading American citizens of the third century, hence the program is entitled, "Century III Leaders."

I am writing to invite you to speak to these students at Williamsburg on Friday evening, March 18, 1988. All the speakers who previously have met with the students, including President Ford, Tom Brokaw and Ambassador Toon, have thoroughly enjoyed the experience. We like the banquet speaker to talk for approximately 30 minutes and then answer questions from these articulate high school seniors for another 25 or 30 minutes.

We can offer an honorarium of $5,000 plus travel expenses to Williamsburg. In addition, if you would like to stay an extra day or two at the Williamsburg Inn, we will be pleased to make these arrangements at our expense.

A copy of the 1987 Century III program is enclosed for your information.

I sincerely hope that you can accept this invitation to be with the Century III Leaders next March. Many thanks for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,
